AMERICAN BUSINESS MEN STUDY METHODS IN CHINA

Missionary in Turkey Teaches Native Christians to Make "Yankee Bread"---Profits During Crimean War Amount to $30,000---All Devoted to Church Building---Call For Native Leaders---Reinforcements Wanted---Reaching the Leaders in China---Opinion of a Hindu Scholar on American Missions and What a Chinese Student Thinks---News and Notes.

BY SOUTHERN MISSIONARY NEWS BUREAU
Ida Clyde Clarke--Editor

Hankow, China, enjoyed the unique occasion of an official visit of American business men representing the United Chambers of Commerce of the Pacific Coast to see the possibilities of China, and to find means of drawing China and America closer together. They came as guests of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

The visit was a sort of triumphal march through the country. Viceroy, educators and business men have vied with one another in their attempts to do the visitors honor. They have surprised even the missionaries who know the innate politeness and courtesy of the Chinese. The receptions and the visits of inspection to industries were more elaborately prepared and carried out than anything that either they or their guests have ever experienced. It recalled the stories of Oriental luxury and magnificence, and of some of the sumptuous occasions of old Roman times, with, of course, the evil features omitted.

Forty-three persons were in the visiting party, and although their program was packed the visitors had glimpses of mission work along the river ports, and particularly in Hankow. They attended in a body the English service at St. John's on the Sunday, and at their request heard a direct and lucid and straightforward business statement of missionary work and success by Rev. St. Harrington Littell. The leaders of the party said that they would guarantee that after what they have seen and heard in China every single one of the party is pro-missionary. There is doubtless not one in the whole party who has now anything but good to say of missions.

"Yankee Bread" in Turkey

An officer who made a tour of observation in eastern Turkey a few years ago, at the expense of the Sultan, says: "The most zealous advocate of American civilization could not have done half as much for his country abroad as the missionary has done. What Dr. Hamlin is silently doing with his Robert college, and the American Missionary with his theological seminary and school books, all European diplomats united cannot overbalance."

To these same missionaries in Turkey the late Earl of Shaftesbury bore this testimony at a public meeting in London: "I do not believe that in the history of diplomacy we can find anything to equal the wisdom and the soundness of the men who constitute the American mission. I have said it twenty times before, and I will say it again---they are a marvelous combination of common sense and piety." One of these same missionaries, Dr. Hamlin, taught the Christian natives, just before the Crimean war broke out, to make sweet, Yankee bread. It attracted the attention of the British officers during the war, and the doctor became a baker to her majesty's soldiers in Constantinople, taking a large contract. His profits during the war amounted to $80,000, every dollar of which he devoted to church erection under the direction of the mission.

Reaching The Leaders in China

A missionary in South China writes: "We are now in the midst of a series of meetings, the best I have ever seen in China. Cheung Lap Tsoi, a native preacher from Canton, is preaching to large congregations. Only a few Sundays ago I baptized twenty-three persons, some of them students from the government normal school and the government high school, and some Chinese scholars or book men. On the following Sunday twenty three were baptized in Wong Ngien. Nearly all of these were students and teachers attending the government normal school. Surely the harvest is ready for reaping. The leaders of the people are turning to the gospel."

Re-Enforcements Wanted

A missionary writing from North China gives an account of a most interesting action taken by the mission. "The highest point of the meeting was reached on Friday morning, when the mission unanimously voted to ask for thirty evangelistic missionaries within the next three years to train new workers and to train our hosts of native converts in the word of God. We adopted this motion after having spent nearly an hour on our knees, lifting up our hearts to God in prayer for these workers. We need them to go into the vast sections of territory where the gospel is not being preached. One missionary said yesterday: "There are unoccupied sections nearly as large as the territory now being worked by our entire mission." We need them also to train the great number of converts that are entering our churches. There have been baptized during the year 2,358 converts. One Chinese preacher, who has baptized more people, probably, than any other man in China, said recently that we must stop receiving new members until we can train in the Bible and for Christian service those who are already in the churches.

Opinion of a Hindu

Teja Singh, a Hindu, in a recent lecture at Columbia university, on "The Evolution of the Indian Mind to the Present Day," said: "The missionaries have done more than the entire British government to educate India. The English government spends scarcely two per-cent an-

Federal Clerks Instructed To Affix Postage on Mail

Washington.---Christmas gift givers this year will not be forced to lick their own stamps when they affix the proper postage to their parcels for mailing unless they wish to, for the Postoffice Department announced today that its postmasters and their assistants would attend to that duty if required.

Orders were issued today to postmasters to affix postage when required on mail matter of second, third and fourth class, the latter being parcel post matter. The stamps will be pre-cancelled and the plan is expected to prevent the great waste of time experienced by post-office patrons while waiting in line to buy postage and mail their packages.

"Miss Head is of Virginia Quaker ancestry. She was educated at Cornell University, Vassar College, and New York State Teachers' College. Shortly after graduation she received some splendid training for missionary work, expecting to go to India. Providential hindrances making that impossible, she gave herself to Christian education. She taught three years in one of the New York State academies, at which time she was a member of the State Force of Institute Conductors. Later she accepted the presidency of the Dalton Female College, a Methodist school at Dalton, Ga. After six years here she spent three years at Lagrange Female College, Lagrange, Ga., remaining in this work until she became Associate Secretary of the Woman's Home Mission Society, then Educational Secretary of the Board of Missions. In this work she has traveled widely, and is known and highly appreciated throughout the Church."

WM. H. MEACHAM PASSES AWAY

Injured While Switching in St. Louis Yards Friday Night---Died Within a Few Hours

INTERMENT HELD AT
HOPKINSVILLE CEMETERY
MONDAY AFTERNOON

Will Meacham, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Meacham, of this place, was struck by a switch engine while on duty as switchman in the Terminals at St. Louis, Mo., Friday night. The accident occurred at 10 o'clock P. M., and he was immediately removed to the infirmary where he received medical attention. But his injuries were serious and he died at three o'clock Saturday morning.

Telegram received by the family, containing the news, came as a great shock. J. D. Meacham, father, and Chas. Barnett, uncle, left at once for St. Louis, to accompany the remains to Earlington. Arthur and Carl Meacham, brothers of the deceased, were at the bedside at the time of his death. The remains were brought to Earlington Saturday morning.

Will was born in Christian county in 1881, at the age of 15 he joined the Baptist church of which his family belongs. Some years ago the family moved to Earlington where he has been known among a wide circle of friends for many good traits of character. He was thirty-two years of age and for several years was connected with the L. & N. Railroad of this place. Some two years ago he went to St. Louis where he has made his home and took employment at the Terminals.

Funeral services were held at the family residence in this city Sunday afternoon, by Rev. W. A. Grant, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of the many friends of the young man and his family. The remains were carried to Hopkinsville Monday morning and laid to rest in the family cemetery.

He leaves a mother, father and three brothers, Dick, Arthur and Carl. Their many friends of the bereaved family extend their sympathy in this hour of sorrow.

A Double Shower.

Thursday to our mother's home. "We kindly beg of you to come." This is a shower you must not flag. But hark each one bring a bag. Most any kind of bag will do. Just so its useful, clean and new. Thus ran the lines of the invitations sent to the members of the Ladies' Aid and friends by Mrs. H. L. Browning and sister Mrs. John L. Long, to a bag shower given at the home of their mother, Mrs. George W. Wyatt, last Thursday afternoon. It was a gloomy afternoon, having rained all day, thus making the occasion a double shower. But in spite of the inclemency a large number of guests assembled, and greatly enjoyed the hour which passed all too rapidly. The assortment of bags was large and beautiful, there being sixty in all. As usual a lifting climax was reached when the time came for refreshments. On this occasion these were delightful and beautiful appointed. All in all it was a most enjoyable afternoon and the guests appreciated the hospitality of these pleasing hostesses.

What a Chinese Student Thinks

Dr. Yung Wing, the first Chinese student to be educated in America, formerly imperial Chinese commissioner of education, and the man who worked out the first plan for educating young Chinamen in this country, said recently: "No one familiar with the work the American missionaries have done in China will do other than praise it.
They have done more to educate and uplift the people than any other class. In all my travels in China, along the coast and inland, I have never failed to see improvement and higher standards wherever the American missionary has been at work."

News and Notes

Six Buddhist priests were patients at one time recently in the Protestant hospital in Siam.

A Chinese statesman was asked when the Chinese revolution really began. His reply was:
"The day Robert Morrison landed in Canton."

South America has about the same population as the Japanese empire. In South America there are 43,000 school teachers; in Japan, 6,000,000.

The Japanese agency of the American Bible society was established in 1876. The whole circulation to the end of the year 1912 was 2,642,541.

The total number of Jews in the world is 12,000,000. Of these 6,250,000 are in Russia and about 2,250,000 in our own land. They have spread a 1 over the land, but the large cities hold the bulk of them. Chicago is said to have 180,000 Jews, Philadelphia some 125,000. But in greater New York, according to Dr. Laidlaw of the Federated churches, there are 1,265,000. Here every fourth man is a Jew.

FOR DELICATE CHILDREN

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.
Mrs. E. W. Cooper of Bloomfield,
N. J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite run down in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol. It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold quickly and building up her strength beside.
I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world-famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones.

Therefore we ask every mother of a weak, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our guarantee.

P. S. Our Sazo Salve is truly wonderful for Eczema. We guarantee it.

Mother! Don't Hesitate! If Cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonfull of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." refuse any other kind of substitute.

For Miss Ashby.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Rex McEwen, on Ridgeway, Monday evening, the Philanthia class of the Methodist church South, gave for Miss Sybil Ashby a miscellaneous shower, in honor of her approaching marriage, Wednesday evening to Mr. Hickman.

The class of which Miss Ashby is a member, numbers about forty, all of which entered into this shower together with a few invited guests, making it a most pleasant social affair.

The gifts were strung on a cord across the dining room. The bride to be was blind folded and led into the room and walked forward touching one of the packages which was that of Miss Bessie Grace, denoting that she would be the next bride much to the disappointment of some of the girls. The gifts were opened and consisted of cut glass, linen, fancy and useful articles.

An interesting contest was heartily enjoyed by all, prizes being won by Misses Lillian Brown, Ida Martin and Mabel Morrison. A delicious luncheon of chicken

PRICES: $10, $12.50, $15, $16.50, $18, $20, AND TO $40.

Domestic Economies. A Manchester lady frequents her friends to tea, but she does not have a table lavishly set. When her guests have eaten all the bread and butter and cookies, and realize that the hostess is looking brightly at the empty dishes. "Well, now," she says, in triumphant tones, "I judged your appetites as exactly!" Manchester Guardian

"Symptoms." Occasionally an afflicted lady tells why she left her husband. For the married man, of some introspection and conscience, the feeling produced by the rectal is something like the feeling one used to have in reading the patent medicine list of "symptoms." He used to feel that he had 'em and deserved the treatment.

Rheumatism, Sprains Backache, Neuralgia

"Yes, daughter, that's good stuff. The pain in my back is all gone—I never saw anything work as quickly as Sloan's Liniment." Thousands of grateful people voice the same opinion. Here's the proof.

Relieved Pain in Back.

"I was troubled with a very bad pain in my back for some time. I went to a doctor but he did not do me any good, so I purchased a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, and now I am a well woman. I always keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment in the house."—Miss Nellie Cotton, 321 Myrtle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Sciatic Rheumatism. "We have used Sloan's Liniment for over six years and found it the best we ever used. When my wife had sciatic rheumatism the only thing that did her any good was Sloan's Liniment. We cannot praise it highly enough."—Mr. J. J. Briggs, Des Moines, Iowa.

Sprained Ankle Relieved.

"I was ill for a long time with a severely sprained ankle. I got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and now I am able to be about and can walk a great deal. I write this because I think you deserve a lot of credit for putting such a fine Liniment on the market and I shall always take time to recommend Dr. Sloan's Liniment."—Mrs. Chas. House, Baltimore, Md.
